Once Upon a Time...Exploring the World of Fairy Tales

at Imagine It! The Children's Museum of Atlanta
October 1, 2011 – January 22, 2012

Programming

Happily Never After

Playwright: Imaginator W. Derek Ratliff; Director: Imaginator DeWayne Morgan;

Musical Director: Imaginator Eric J. Little; Musical Composer: Dolph Amick

It's the classic tale of good versus evil. In our Imaginator mini-musical, "Happily Never After," twins Sky and Raven learn what it takes to create a fairy tale of their own. However, they find out that they must save the endings of all fairy tales from a battle between another set of twins – Evil-Is and Good-I-Am. If they cannot find a prince and princess to help them out, all of the world's fairy tales will have an unhappy ending forever. Join the Imaginators and find out if this story will end happily...or unhappily ever after.

Fairy Tale Games

Here ye! Here ye! Calling all future kings and queens...princes and princesses. Join the Imaginators for a medieval game of curling – with a twist! We provide the brooms and you provide the energy!

Kiddie Cotillion

Join an Imaginator as you become a prince or princess and learn to curtsy or bow and dance a simple waltz in this fun cotillion class just for kiddies! What a fun way for children to explore and refine their social and communication skills.

Laugh and Learn: Fairy Tales

Join your Imaginators as you unscramble fairy tales, help Cinderella find her lost slipper, and search for the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

Once Upon a Story

Beyond the spider web...join the Imaginators as they spin a classic tale from the number one mischief-maker, Anansi the Spider!

Story Time with Alice in Wonderland

See Alice come to life as she reads "Alice the Fairy" by David Shannon.
